Momories that will forever last.....Whakarewarewa!

I brought 26 students (4 staff) down from Auckland to experience Whakarewarewa and experience this really special place filled with history and memories. It was truly a fantastic experience for our students (Year 8s) and so much learning was had by all. We did the guided tour, had the hangi lunch and then finished with the performance. It was all faultless, including the booking/reservation side of it that happened behind the scenes - so accommodating, helpful and organised. Not to forget the marvellous tour guides. I would most definitely recommend visiting...
